EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

01

A launch that feels as good as the bottle.

AURÉLIA pairs a calm, nature-led look with everyday practicality: a copper-tone lid, a digital display cap, a one-press latch and an easy-carry strap, in five colours. The first weeks decide whether it is remembered as a product or as a lifestyle.

This proposal covers a complete launch content pack and a four-week rollout. Every deliverable has already been drafted in the pages that follow, so you can judge the quality before you approve anything.

What you receive

1

Launch content

Blog post, product descriptions and a teaser caption.

2

Four social posts

Instagram, Facebook, LinkedIn and X, each with its own visual and caption.

3

Brand infographic

The reuse story and your five colours on a single page.

4

Brand mock-ups

Hero, cut-away and close-up scenes in a real setting.

5

Engagement plan

Nine recommendations, each tied to a metric.

6

Clear commercials

Fixed PKR pricing and a week-by-week schedule.

02

Leaf. Water. Copper on green.

The identity is built from two ideas that sit naturally together: leaf and water. A copper line mark on deep forest green signals premium quality and nature, which suits a sustainability-minded buyer who still wants a beautiful object.

VOICE

Calm, confident, a little poetic. Never preachy about plastic.

TAGLINE

Hydrate in colour. Hydrate beautifully.

AUDIENCE

Commuters, students, wellness and outdoor people, corporate gifting.

BLOG POST

Why your next water bottle should be reusable (and beautiful)

The problem we stopped noticing. Plastic bottles feel harmless because each one is so small. Added together, they are not. Euromonitor figures reported by The Guardian put global sales at more than 480 billion plastic bottles a year, roughly a million every minute. A typical PET bottle can take around 400 years to break down, and only a small share of the plastic we make is ever recycled.

The simplest fix is also the most personal. Replacing single-use bottles with one you love and carry every day removes dozens, sometimes hundreds, of bottles from your year. The catch has always been that most reusable bottles are easy to ignore. If it is not something you want to pick up, it stays in the cupboard.

> "The best reusable bottle is the one you actually use."

Designed to be picked up. AURÉLIA starts from that problem. An ergonomic grip sits naturally in the hand. A copper-tone lid with a push-button latch opens with one press, and a braided strap makes it easy to carry on a commute, a hike or a lecture-hall dash. A digital display in the cap shows the temperature of what is inside.

Five colours, one signature bottle. Ocean Blue for calm mornings, Royal Purple for twilight sips, Ruby Red for bold days, Blush Pink for soft style and Forest Green for the outdoors.

Small habit, real impact. Every AURÉLIA you carry is one less single-use bottle in your routine, and one less in the ocean. It is a small choice that repeats every day, which is exactly why it adds up.

Ruby Red · Sustainability

Sustainability is not a campaign. It is a design decision.

Around a million plastic bottles are bought worldwide every minute. We built AURÉLIA on a simple belief: people choose reusable when the product is something they are proud to carry.

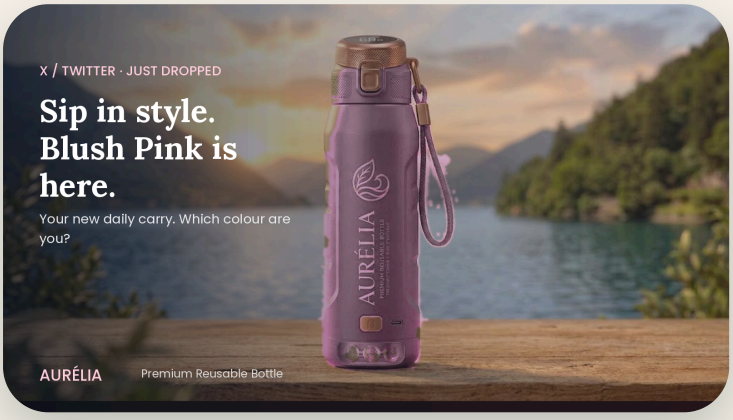

What is one small switch your team has made to cut single-use plastic?

BRAND INFOGRAPHIC

Why switch to a reusable bottle

One tall visual that works as a LinkedIn carousel, an Instagram Story set or a printed poster.

It opens with the problem, plastic volume and lifespan, then moves to the answer: AURÉLIA, its five colours and its five key features.
